

Sandoz HAcK – Healthcare Access Challenge

Competition Information

Introduction

Despite all the advances in modern medicine, universal access to healthcare is still arguably the single largest unmet medical need. At Sandoz we believe that the biggest changes often come from amazing, small ideas. Sometimes, the only difference between a good idea and a great idea is a little bit of support. That is where Sandoz HACK comes in – the Healthcare Access Challenge.

We're calling all creative thinkers to 'hack healthcare access' and enter Sandoz HACK, submitting ideas that use mobile technology (M-Health) to connect people to better health. It could be in your community or anywhere where you think that your idea could make a difference.

Following a robust judging process, finalists will refine their idea with support from the OpenIDEO global community, and then be invited to come to London in March 2017 to present the idea to a panel at WIRED Health, a global event that brings together the brightest and best in healthcare innovation. Seed funding and mentorship will be provided to three winners to make their idea a reality.

Enter now to be a part of this initiative and help us to reimagine access to healthcare!

Why does this matter?

Wherever you are from and whatever you do, being healthy, and staying healthy, influences almost everything we do in life. However, over 2 billion people worldwide currently cannot access the medicines they need, and over 400 million lack access to essential health services. And this could be closer to home than you might think.

Health access challenges and priorities vary hugely across continents, countries and cultures, making innovation in local health access initiatives a critical healthcare priority. By enabling grassroots solutions to break down healthcare access barriers we can effectively help local communities and provide solutions that, with scale, could have global impact, bringing good healthcare to people when and where they need it.

Who is Sandoz HACK for?

Anyone and everyone between the ages of 18 and 35 that wants to use their entrepreneurial spirit to make a positive difference in the world. Wherever you are from, most likely there is a health access challenge crying out to be solved in your local area – you just have to look for it!

We are looking for students, app developers and people who are passionate about healthcare and/or technology, to enter. All you need is an idea that you believe could solve a healthcare access challenge in your local community.

You must be:

- Able to enter the competition via the Sandoz Facebook Page (video or written entry)
- Committed to seeing your idea through to the final stages (if selected as a finalist)
- Able and available to travel to London in March 2017 (all expenses paid)
- Able to enter the competition in English

The Competition Theme

Utilizing M-Health technology to solve health access problems

Mobile phones, smartphones, wearable tech and tablets are transforming healthcare, empowering people to take responsibility for their own health, and enabling healthcare providers to deliver better and more efficient services.

Technologies come in many forms. Whether they are sophisticated apps for patients to manage long-term conditions or simple SMS-based services to help people in developing countries with basic healthcare needs, they can improve access to medicines and medical information, and build healthcare systems capacity. But for too many, the promise of mobile health (M-Health) remains just that, a promise.

Do you have a great idea for an app or mobile-based service or technology that could break down the barriers to healthcare for people that cannot currently access the medicines, information or services they need? Enter Sandoz HACK today!

What's in it for you?

Cash Prize

You could be one of three winners of €20K to help bring your idea to life. You will also receive ongoing mentoring from the Sandoz team who will be there to support you as you take the next step in realizing your idea.

Be part of a Community

As one of six shortlisted finalists your idea will be published on Open IDEO, opening it up to game changing input from a community of leading organizations and individuals who drive collaboration, innovation and impact around the world's toughest problems. They will help you to build, develop and refine your idea so it's ready for the next stage of the competition.

Expert Mentors

Sandoz will also give you access to a group of expert mentors in the fields of marketing, communications, project management, finance and business to help you consolidate the input generated through OpenIDEO to refine your idea. They will also help you to develop your Dragon's Den style pitch presentation to be in with a chance of being a winner.

Invitation to WIRED Health 2017 in London

You will then be invited to WIRED Health 2017 in London to pitch your ideas to an industry leading expert panel to be in with a chance of winning. WIRED Health is a one day showcase for extraordinary innovators using technology to re-imagine the health sector. In its fourth year, this event attracts an audience of around 300 physicians, senior healthcare executives, innovators and investors who have an interest in exploring the evolution and future of the healthcare sector.

Terms and Conditions of the Competition

The participation in the contest Sandoz HACK is subject to the acceptance of the following terms and conditions (the “T&Cs”).

Organizer, object and timing

The competition called “Sandoz HACK” (“the Competition”) is being conducted by SANDOZ INTERNATIONAL GmbH, with corporate domicile at Industriestrasse 25, 83607 Holzkirchen, Germany, (hereinafter “Sandoz”), through the website: www.sandoz.com/makingaccessshappen and the Sandoz Facebook page, (the “Website”) and will be able to provide access to the user, under the Terms and Conditions described below, to one of the three prizes of €20,000 in order to develop your idea.

Sandoz will carry out the Competition from 00:01 Central European Time (“CET”) on September 28, 2016, until 23:59 CET on November 30, 2016, both inclusive.

The user will have the following e-mail address to consult any doubts: info.sandoz@sandoz.com.

Requirements to participate in the competition

In order to participate in this Competition, you must be between 18 and 35 years old. Country of residence can be anywhere in the world. You must be able to enter the competition via Facebook (video or written entry) and abide by the Terms and Conditions of such profile and of such social network at any time in the English language.

Please note that the name and profile picture with which the participant in the Competition is registered at Facebook in the period during which the Competition is on (the “Picture”), will appear on the Sandoz Facebook page, should you enter the competition, become one of the finalists and, later on, one of the winners, and, therefore, they will be visible to the rest of Facebook users who visit our Company profile.

You cannot participate in this Competition if:

- (i) You are an employee (or a first grade relative of an employee) of Sandoz or any of the Novartis Group of companies or any of their affiliates.
- (ii) You are an employee (or a first grade relative of an employee) of the companies, publicity agencies or promotion agencies involved in this Competition, or an employee of any of their affiliates.
- (iii) You are below 18 or above 35 years old.
- (iv) You are not an individual but a corporation, organization, association, etc.
- (v) You are not committed to seeing your idea through to the final stages (if selected as a finalist).
- (vi) You are not able and available to travel to London in March 2017 (all expenses paid)

Sandoz reserves the right to exclude from the competition any Participant (as defined hereinafter) who, in the reasonable opinion of Sandoz, infringe those requirements or any other aspect of these Terms and Conditions, or when there are suspicions about fraudulent profiles or data. To these effects, Sandoz will be entitled to request from the Participants and, specially, from the finalists and winners, any information and documentation needed in order to verify the compliance with the terms and conditions of the Competition. The lack of delivery of such information or documentation will result in the immediate elimination of the Participant from this Competition.

How to participate in this competition

In order to participate in this Competition, the users who comply with the above-mentioned requirements (the “Participant(s)”) must post a brief description of your idea that you believe could solve a healthcare access challenge in your local community on the Sandoz Facebook page in one of the following ways:

- 1-2 minute video; or
- 150-200 word post.

What to include

Please include information on who you are, the problem you have observed in your local community and your idea/solution.

In order to post the description or your idea through the video or the word post, you should follow the following steps:

(i) Visit the Sandoz Facebook page (ii) read the post that precedes the announcement of the Competition and in which you are being provided by a URL that will redirect you to the Terms and Conditions; (iii) comply with the house of rules of the Website; and (iv) accept the Terms and Conditions and the Privacy Policy of Sandoz.

If your idea meets the Competition criteria, your video/word post will be made visible on the Sandoz Facebook page and more information on the next stages of the competition will be sent to you via Facebook messenger. This will include a form for you to provide more detail on your idea. The form will ask you to provide some basic information and contact details so that we can process your entry. We will also ask you to accept these Terms and Conditions by ticking a box on the form before you send it back to us.

Please return this form by email to sandoz.hack@sandoz.com for formal judging.

The participation in this Competition is limited to one video/word post per participant (identified by one Facebook profile and/or the same name and last name and /or same e-mail address), so that one Participant cannot participate more than once.

Sandoz recommends the participants to, previously to their participation in this Competition, check their Privacy Settings according to their preferences. In any case, Sandoz will not be held liable for the scope of the publication of such information on the Participant's wall, which ultimately depends only on the Participant.

The deadline to post the videos or word posts will end on November 30, 2016 at 23.59 C.E.T.

Rules on videos and word posts

The Participant must respect the following rules regarding when posting the video or the word post on the Website:

- The Participants will not post any comments infringing the terms and conditions of the Competition or any law or regulation or that induce to infringing them (in particular, any regulation protecting the honor, privacy, image, personal data and/or intellectual or industrial property rights);
- the Participants will not reveal or disclose any confidential, personal or intimate information of him or herself, of third parties, or of minors;
- the Participant will not provide information based on rumors or speculations, instead of proved facts;
- the Participants will not use the video or word post to make specific questions or critics to Sandoz, since there are already other not public ways for these purposes, such as addressing us by e-mail;
- the Participants will not impersonate the identity of third parties or will manifest opinions on behalf of third parties without due authorization;
- the Participants will not send or post unsolicited commercial communications (spam) to other users;
- the Participants will not include texts, graphics, audiovisuals, logos, links or materials of any kind owned by third parties without the corresponding authorization of those third parties.

Each Participant is solely responsible for the information and opinions that he or she posts through his or her Facebook profile and will be held liable before Sandoz and any third parties for any infringements he or she might commit, keeping Sandoz free of any liability in the context of any claim or liabilities that might arise from his or her comments and that might be associated to the Competition and/or to Sandoz.

Use of the website

The Participant is aware of and accepts, voluntarily and expressly, that the use of the Website is done, in any case, under his or her sole and exclusive responsibility.

By using the Website, the Participant agrees not to carry out any conduct that might infringe the law and/or the terms and conditions of the Competition or damage the image, interests and the rights of Sandoz or of third parties. In particular, the Participant assumes the compromise expressly to: (i) not destroy, alter, disable or damage the Website in any other way; and (ii) not introduce programs, viruses, macros, controls or any other logic device or sequence of characters which cause, or could be susceptible to cause, any type of alteration in the IT systems of the Website.

Sandoz adopts security measures that are reasonably adequate to detect the existence of viruses. Notwithstanding this, the Participant must be aware that the security measures of the IT systems on the Internet are not invulnerable and that, therefore, Sandoz cannot guarantee the lack of existence of viruses, malware, worms, social engineering attacks from third parties (phishing, pharming, Trojans, etc.) or other elements which could cause alterations on the IT systems (software and hardware) of the Participant or on his or her electronic documents and files contained in them.

Access to the Website through mechanical means different to physical persons (bots), is strictly forbidden.

Sandoz will not be held liable for any (i) interferences, omissions, interruptions, viruses, telephone failures or disconnections in the operative functioning of the electronic system; or (ii) delays or blockings in the operative functioning of the electronic system caused by deficiencies or overload of the telephone lines or in the Internet, as well as damaged caused by third parties; which could be derived from causes external to Sandoz.

Prize

This Competition winners will be awarded with 3 prizes of €20,000 each to implement their, as well as ongoing mentoring from Sandoz (the "Prizes"). The Prizes are limited to one prize per Participant. We will also be awarding 3 tickets to Wired Health 2017 for entrants who are not selected as a shortlisted finalist but are actively involved in supporting and contributing on OpenIDEO to those ideas that have been shortlisted. Three winners will receive a ticket each to the 1-day event in London.

The Prizes will under no circumstance be subject to exchange, alteration or reimbursement. Also, the winners will be entitled to the exclusive Prize obtained as such, without the possibility to, in any case, apply for economic reimbursement in case they chose to give up the Prizes, or to endorse the Prizes to third parties. Sandoz will be exempt from any obligation or compensation to the Participants if due to force majeure, legal imperative, or any other cause not attributable to Sandoz, the Competition were suspended, or partially or totally cancelled. In any case, any suspension or cancellation would be duly communicated to the winners of the Prizes affected by such suspension or cancellation.

Selection of the winners of the competition

Competition entries will be reviewed by a panel of judges and a shortlist of six finalists will be selected. The Participants selected to move on to the next stage, will be notified.

The ideas of the six finalists will be presented at OpenIDEO (www.openideo.com), an online community of leading organizations and individuals who drive collaboration, innovation and impact around the world's toughest problems. They will help the finalists to build, develop and refine their ideas so it's ready for the next stage of the competition.

Sandoz will also give the finalists access to a group of expert mentors in the fields of marketing, communications, project management, finance and business, to help them consolidate the input generated through OpenIDEO and to develop their pitch presentation to be in with a chance of being a winner.

The six shortlisted finalists will be invited to London to an event hosted by Sandoz. They will hear from keynote speakers, participate in workshops, meet the other finalists and prepare their final pitch presentations

They will also be invited to Wired Health to pitch their ideas to a prestigious panel of judges. Sandoz will be judging the shortlisted finalists who make it through the Sandoz HACK competition at WIRED Health and three final winners will be chosen and seed funding awarded at this event.

Entrants who do not make the shortlist will be eligible to win tickets to WIRED Health 2017 by contributing on OpenIDEO to those ideas that have been shortlisted.

Three winners will be selected at random on January 31, 2017 and will be awarded one ticket each to attend the event. Winners will be notified by email by February 3, 2017.

The fact that a Participant shares on his or her Facebook wall that he or she has participated in this Competition does not raise the possibilities of becoming a shortlisted finalist or a winner of any of the Prizes.

Publication of the winners

The list of the winners will be published on March 13, 2017 on www.sandoz.com/makingaccesshappen and the Sandoz Facebook page.

Delivery of the prizes

Once the three winners have been selected and in the term of 12 working days from the publication on the Website of their condition of such, they will have to contact the Website by means of a private message in order to arrange the provision of the necessary data to cash the economic prize.

It is the liability of the winners to have all the necessary documentation and to fulfill with all those requirements in order to be able to enjoy the prize.

After the term has elapsed without the winners having provided Sandoz with their necessary data, or in case of a waiver expressly manifested by any of the winners, should this be prior to the deadline, the organizers of this Competition will contact the following shortlisted finalist, via mentioning it on the Competition Website. The next shortlisted finalist will then be contacted, as well as the rest of winners, provided the necessary data in order to be able to collect the prize.

Intellectual and industrial property rights

The participation in this Competition does not grant the Participant any right of any nature, including but not limited to the intellectual and industrial property of the Website. The Participant shall refrain from obtaining, or trying to obtain, or using the Website by means or procedures different than those provided to such effect. The Participant shall at all times respect all the intellectual and industrial rights of the Website owned by Sandoz or third parties.

Participant represents that it owns or has the right to use any and all information, data, methods and intellectual property rights which it shall use to participate in the Competition.

Authorization for the use of image rights

The participation in the Competition implies the express consent required by all Participants for their image rights, honor and personal and family privacy for external use in any way.

Therefore, Sandoz will be entitled to publish the identity of the shortlisted candidates, as well as that of the Winners and to use their images, without time limitation and for the entire world, with the right to sub-authorize third parties.

In this sense, the Participant guarantees Sandoz that the person or persons whose image is shown in the Picture have provided their unequivocal and express consent for the capture of their image, as well as its public reproduction and broadcasting. In case the person appearing in the Picture is a minor, the Participant guarantees that he or she has obtained the appropriate express and unequivocal consent for the collection and public reproduction and broadcasting of the image from the parents or legal guardians of the minor.

The publication of the identity and/or the Picture will be conducted freely, so neither Sandoz nor any third party to which Sandoz could transfer the data will be obliged to pay any fee for such concept.

Personal Data

According to the applicable Data Protection regulation (the Bundesdatenschutzgesetz), we inform you that the personal data (any information that, alone or in combination with other information, would enable to identify an individual, including but not limited to name, last name, date of birth, fingerprints, image, voice recordings) ("Personal Data") provide in the context of this Competition will be processed with the only purpose of managing your participation in this Competition.

Please be aware that Sandoz may also transfer your Personal Data to its affiliates and the Novartis Group of companies for the purposes of selecting the candidates, offering mentoring and judging the proposals and that those affiliates and employees could be located in countries different from yours, with different levels of data protection. However, Sandoz will nonetheless seek to ensure that data transfers to its and its affiliates' databases in that country are adequately protected.

Therefore, as owner of the Personal Data, you hereby provide your consent and authorization to Sandoz in order to collect and process your personal data for the purposes described above.

In case you don't provide us with your consent for the collection and processing of your Personal Data, as well as for the posterior publication should you become one of the winners, we wouldn't be able to admit or process your participation in this Competition.

You have the right to ensure that your Personal Data is always up-to-date. In some countries you have the legal right to require us to correct or delete your Personal Data. In addition, you can always tell us to stop contacting you. If you wish to contact us regarding our use of your Personal Data, please e-mail us at sandoz.hack@sandoz.com. If you contact us, please indicate the name of this Competition where you provided the information, as well as the specific information you would like us to correct, update or delete. Your requests will be dealt with in a prompt and proper manner. Requests to delete Personal Data will be subject to any applicable legal and ethical reporting or document filing or retention obligations imposed on us.

We should not be able to verify the identity of a person through the Personal Data he/she has provided, the participation in this Competition will be invalidated.

Assignment

The rights and obligations of Sandoz under these terms & conditions of the Competition can be assigned to any third party by Sandoz, without the consent of the Participant.

Acceptance of Terms and Conditions of the Terms and Conditions and resolution of incidences

The mere fact of the participation in the Competition implies the acceptance of these terms and conditions of the Competition, as well as Sandoz's criterion with regards to the resolution of the interpretation of any of them. For anything not regulated by these terms and conditions, this Competition will be subject to what the applicable German law and regulation establishes about it at the time it is being held.

Sandoz shall not be not liable for any incidences or events of any kind (i.e. interruption or loss of internet connection at the moment of the participation which might be caused by a breakdown of the IT systems due to a force majeure case; or any incidences with origin in force majeure events derived from causes such as a breakdown of the telephone, IT, electricity, or postal networks, or provoked by natural external agents (atmospheric, climate-related, etc.), or by a deficient functioning of the companies providing such services.

Sandoz shall not be held liable for any mistakes, incidents or damages that might be caused during this Competition and that attributable to third parties managing it.

Sandoz shall not be held liable for any possible losses, damage, thefts, delays or any other circumstance attributable to third parties which could affect the development of this Competition, including the enjoyment of the Prizes.

The participation in this Competition implies the acceptance of the Terms of Use of Facebook, where the Competition is taking place and, in particular, the full exoneration of Facebook in any liability and the acknowledgement that the Competition is not sponsored by, endorsed by or associated in any way to Facebook.

The laws of Germany are exclusively governing this Competition and German conflict of law rules are excluded. Any dispute arising out of or in connection with the Competition shall be submitted exclusively to the competent courts of Munich (Landgericht München I), without restricting any rights of appeal.

Other issues

Sandoz reserves its right to modify, if necessary, the terms and conditions of the Competition. If by force majeure causes it were necessary to delay or cancel this Competition, it will be announced in the terms and conditions, so we invite you to consult them after participating.

Facebook doesn't sponsor, endorse or manages in any way this Competition, nor is it associated to it in any way.

These terms and conditions are available at the website www.sandoz.com/makingaccessshappen and the Sandoz Facebook page and through the following e-mail address: sandoz.hack@sandoz.com.
